ANSWER KEY

Are Printed Dictionaries Behind the Times?

I. Complete the sentences

1. fit
2. reach
3. fit
4. reach
5. offer
6. search
7. search
8. offer

II. Answer the questions · Task 1

1. When she graduated from high school.
2. She replaced it with a newer edition.
3. Yes, they do. Many rely on smartphones to look up words, if they look them up at all.
4. They often read only the first line of an entry and assume that all synonyms mean the same thing.
5. By using a full printed college-level dictionary and reading the explanations carefully. A concise smartphone dictionary may not show those small differences.
6. It means printed college-level dictionaries are still useful and have not become obsolete, even if fewer people use them.

Task 2 · Sample answer

Yes. Printed dictionaries give fuller explanations and examples, helping students understand how words differ and choose the right one.

III. Translate the sentences

1. We rely on public transportation to go to school every day.
2. Once you start reading this book, you won’t want to stop.
3. This gift is meant to be a surprise, so don’t tell anyone.
4. I need to get rid of these old clothes because they no longer fit me.
5. Most people don’t take the trouble to check facts before sharing news online.

ANSWER KEY

An Interview With an English Teacher

I. Complete the sentences

1. challenging
2. exciting
3. uncomfortable
4. achievement
5. recently
6. creativity

II. Answer the questions · Task 1

1. She started learning English when she was about six or seven years old.
2. She attended international youth meetings and went to Australia as an exchange student, where she communicated with native English speakers.
3. She feels happy to see them realize their dreams and achieve what they have worked hard for.
4. The goal is to communicate with others, not to be perfect.
5. Equip yourself with creativity, keep learning throughout your life, and learn to work with others. Most importantly, stay strong and carry on.
6. She also shared her thoughts on learning and teaching English.

Task 2 · Sample answer (under 30 words)

I was afraid of making mistakes, so I practiced speaking with friends and reminded myself that communication mattered more than perfection.

III. Translate the sentences

1. As long as you work hard, you will be able to achieve your goal.
2. I always get excited when I see my old friends again.
3. I feel comfortable speaking English in front of others.
4. No matter what difficulties you face, you should carry on and never give up.
5. Learning a new language can help you communicate with people from different cultures.

Question 6 is a suggested completion based on the interview. Answers to open-ended questions may vary.